

★ Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam" . . .

By JUNE JONES

PAUL SOUTHERN, head of the Bible department at Abilene Christian College, who was a visitor at the Tuesday noon luncheon at the Hamlin Lions Club, when he was introduced by President William S. Seals, declared he had known Seals from "way back when."

"First time I remember Bill Seals was at the old swimming hole out from Gilmer in East Texas," declared Dr. Southern. The professor failed to give details of the appearance of young Seals when he probably held his nose and pumped in feet-first into the "deep hole" of the favorite creek.

Southern had known the Seals family intimately before coming out to West Texas a number of years ago.

★ THEY TELL US that this is the way it all began . . . Many years ago, among the peasants in Europe, a young man in love would pick a certain blue blossom in the morning, while it was still damp with dew.

He placed it in his pocket. If after 24 hours the flower was still bright and fresh, the marriage he was thinking of would be happy. But if the flower was faded, the marriage would be unhappy.

Naturally, the blossom usually faded and, as many men followed its advice and remained unmarried, the flower gradually came to be known as the "bachelors' button."

★ W. L. BOYD is running over at the lip with delight and information following his recent trip to the Baptist World Alliance at London and a subsequent trip to Switzerland, Italy, the Holy Land, France and other sections of Europe and the Near East.

And he must be quite a souvenir "picker-upper," too. In explaining the other night to a church audience that he had in his possession some olives picked from an olive tree in the Holy Land that was standing when Christ was in that section of the world, he declared that just following his breaking off of the twig from the tree with some olives on it, and putting it in his pocket, the guide in charge of his party said: "Of course, you people realize that the trees are not to be mutilated. If every visitor took a few olives, the trees would be totally destroyed."

★ MOYNE L. KELLY, representative from the 85th District, was in Hamlin this week on his first official visit since the close of the recent overtime session of the Texas Legislature.

He spoke at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club and the Wednesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Rotary Club.

"Work of the Legislature brings up a lot of unheard-of law making which provides the 'spice of life' for the routine sessions," declared Kelly to a Hamlin group Tuesday.

He went on to outline the appearance of a group of bow-and-arrow folks at the state capital who were seeking the passage of a bill to provide 10 days of pre-season "silent hunting" by hunters who wanted to use their bows and arrows.

★ MRS. WELDON JOHNSON was pretty clever the other day, we understand, in one of her decisions.

It seems that, in a group of young boys and girls, the question was asked, "How many of you will be glad when school starts? Will you stand please?"

The mother of two youngsters, who has probably had a summer "vacation" while keeping up with her own youngsters and probably plenty of the neighbors' kids, too, was one of the first in the group to get to her feet.

★ OUR REVISED EDITION of Webster's dictionary may not be accepted by all the lexicographers and word makers of the land, but it at least is modern. For example . . .

Trigonometry—The art of learning to shoot straight.

Bachelors—A fellow with a single thought.

Optimist—A fellow who believes his ship will come in when it is already 10 years overdue.

No Names Filed for Place on City Ballot to Elect Alderman

Deadline for Filing For Council Post Set September 3

No names had been filed for places on the ballot of the special city election to name a member of the City Council Wednesday evening late. However, there was agitation in the city, and placing of a name on the ticket was expected before the week is over, it was reported to a Herald reporter.

The special election has been called for Tuesday, September 13. Only one voting box will be open for the election, and it will be at the city hall. Polls will be open from 8:00 a. m. till 7:00 p. m.

The election was called to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Delma Shelburne, who is moving next week to Snyder, where he has formed a new building contractor firm.

Closing of filing date for places on the ticket has been set for Saturday, September 3, at 12:00 o'clock noon. Names must be filed with the city secretary at the city hall.

Voting will be open to all residents of the Hamlin city limits who hold current poll tax receipts or exemptions, it is explained.

Term of the new member of the City Council will expire in April, 1967, Shelburne having been named last April for a two-year term.

Now Field Opened by General Crude's Producer on Molland Tract West of City

Production in a well that signaled the opening of a new field west of Hamlin, another test that gives promise of production, two new tests and a plug-in made the oil news picture for the Hamlin area during the past week.

The new field opener is General Crude Oil Company's No. 3-A Pearce Molland test which The Herald reported as being completed. It is eight miles northwest of Hamlin. The well had a daily potential of 364 barrels of 42-gravity oil. Flow was through quarter-inch choke with 300 pounds tubing pressure. It is producing from six perforations per foot at 5,989½-63½ feet in line.

Campaign to Pay Off Little League Indebtedness Set

About 200 Hamlin boys participated in the Little League baseball activity during the season just closed, report officials of the organization, who point with pride to the character building accomplishments as well as the physical assets of the plant which has been arranged for the youngsters of the community.

On a playing field and park that cost approximately $2,500, there remains a debt of about $450. Little League officials report, who are endeavoring to pay off this indebtedness. The finance committee of the league urges citizens of the community who are interested in liquidating this balance to make their contributions to W. T. Johnson, treasurer, at the Farmers & Merchants National Bank.

Leaders in the Little League movement in Hamlin expressed appreciation for the wholehearted support people of the area have given the league the past season. "People have been liberal with their donations," an official declared, "but we surely would like to clean up this indebtedness at this time."

Mrs. Wilkinson was at sea returning from London when notified of the accident and a helicopter and airliner joined to speed her to Houston.

Record Enrollments Seen As Schools Open Monday

Rep. Kelly Says First Legislative Session Was Lesson

Recent overtime session of the Texas Legislature provided some further education to a long-time school teacher, admitted Representative Moyne L. Kelly of Austin, as he reviewed his first period of duty with the lower house at Austin this week during an official visit to Hamlin and this region.

Kelly, who had taught school and farmed most of his prior days, was elected to the Texas House of Representatives last February in a special election conducted in the 85th District after David Ratliff of Stamford resigned following his election to the State Senate. It was Kelly's first experience in politics.

"Your House of Representatives did a big job during the past session," declared Kelly. He went on to point out that 560 bills were passed by the House, which was more than one-third of the total of 1,487 bills that were presented either to the committees or in the Legislature.

Of the 560 bills that were approved by the legislators, 14 were vetoed by Governor Shivers, the representative remarked.

Kelly spoke at the regular weekly luncheons of the Hamlin Lions and Rotary Clubs Tuesday at Wednesday at the oil mill guest house.

He declared he had spent much of his first official visit to Austin in getting "acclimated" and making effective contacts with other senators and representatives in order to be of the best service to his district. He urged people of the area to make known their wants and needs in connection with his work at Austin.

Committeemen for ASC Group Named

Results of the annual community committee election held August 18 to name members of the Jones County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee were announced this week by M. S. Jones, office manager of the ASC.

Individuals elected in each of the county's four communities as chairman, vice chairman, regular member, first alternate and second alternate, respectively, are listed below:

Community A (Precinct 1)—Fred Rosenbaum, Ira Treadwell, Eddie A. Hewett, Willie M. Holloway and Mose T. Jones.

Community B (Precinct 2)—Robert L. Thane, Weldon F. Walker, Johnny M. Hansen, James D. Lovvorn and Luther W. Larson.

Community C (Precinct 3)—Brad R. Doty, Young G. Walker, George R. Young, Harvey H. Rowland and Franklin Godfrey.

Community D (Precinct 4)—Earl F. Scott, Richard C. Jackson, William T. Sloan, J. C. Rainwater and Klebor A. Gora.

It is the responsibility of the committeemen elected, Jones declares, to assist in determining policies and in making decisions necessary in the administration of the various ASC programs carried on in the county. The new committeemen will begin their period of service September 1.

The chairman elected in each of the four communities will serve as a delegate to a county convention to be held at 9:00 a. m. August 26, for the purpose of electing the county committee.

The gait of walk or run may give a fellow away. That, incidentally was partly responsible for a happy reunion last week-end of four young people who were separated 19 years ago by adoption. A Hamlin young man, Don Johnson, who is a college student now in Abilene, was one of those involved.

A feature story in the Abilene Reporter-News by Burton Tanco tells of the events interestingly as follows:

Mutual friends of a Hardin-Simmons University senior and a 23-year-old Post resident frequently remarked that the two resembled each other in appearance.

Joe Moore, 21, of 1525 Chestnut Street, and Tomomy Graham of Post were brothers, although the friends didn't know it—and neither did the brothers.

Nor did Joe know, until his discovery of the relationship, that his sister, Vivian Graham, 25, also was a resident of Post.

This was the reason for the happy reunion last week-end in Abilene of four children who were separated 19 years ago by adoption.

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herd arrived August 16 at 10:20 a. m. Weighing seven pounds 13 ounces, he has been named Michael Jack.

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marshall of Hamlin was born August 17 at 4:30 p. m. Tipping the scales at a light five pounds 13 ounces, he will answer to Wayne.

All Divisions of School Looking For Student Gains

All-time highs in registration are expected when school pupils of the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District begin their trek back to classes next week, declared Foster Cook, new superintendent of schools, who also will be beginning a new school term here.

Advance registration of high school students conducted Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week indicated substantial gains in enrollments, declares B. V. Newberry, high school principal, as early tabulations were made middle of the week. Still further high school registrations will be taken next Monday, when the new term of school officially opens for 1955-56.

Similar increases in enrollment are expected at Junior High School, under supervision of Marvin Carlton; Elementary School, under direction of Odean Murphree; and Primary School, supervised by Mrs. Fred B. Smith.

Although some classes will be crowded, and extra space not heretofore utilized will have to be used for classrooms, schedule of work will not be curtailed, the superintendent declares.

It is observed in this connection by school leaders, members of the school board and other citizens vitally interested in the schools' activities that the district must face the need for expanded facilities during the coming months.

The faculty for all the schools was completed this week with the naming of Lola Milstead to replace Patsy Maberry, who had resigned. Miss Milstead will be a teacher in Junior High School.

STARTING OF SCHOOL MEANS OPPORTUNITIES

With the resumption of school work in the Hamlin territory, renewed interest in the preparation for life of our youngsters is being given precedence.

More and more, in our every-day business and social life, the importance of an education is being felt. On every hand one is brought to the realization that the young person without even a high school education has 85 per cent less chance of attaining outstanding success in the business world than the person with the education.

Certainly there are exceptions to the rule of success, where an uneducated man or woman has succeeded in this or that profession, but those cases are few and far between.

Education today is practical in its training of our young people for later life. Generally, the major portion of primary and grade school classes is devoted to basic knowledge of reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic, but even in these classes practical training in personal appearance, hygiene, getting along, sharing and teamwork are instilled in young minds. These latter principles, together with cooperation along these lines at their homes, help our youngsters are prepare to live and get along with their fellowman.

As junior high and high school training is given the students they learn music, home economics, dramatics and physical development that better fit them for the "extras" of life.

Take, for example, some of Hamlin High School's special training: Vocational agriculture provides the young men with knowledge gained from practical experiences of farming and research, providing the boys with not only "book learning" but actual projects with crops, animals and fowls on which the young men keep their own books and experiments. Homemaking courses provide young women with specialized pointers in cooking, serving, sewing, child care, etc. that will prepare them for real homemaking. Commercial courses accentuate business training with bookkeeping, typing, dictation and related subjects. The band programs provide expert training in music that is valuable. The athletic program of our schools supply physical development, and well as training in cooperation, taking the bruises and losses that prove helpful in the game of life.

Your Home Town Paper's earnest plea to young folks and their parents is that every educational advantage be seized and followed through, both in secondary schools and university training. It costs time and money—but it likewise has its rewards in better living.

Make Boosting a Hobby

An avocation is a hobby. You may have several. Listed as avocations are fishing, hunting, camping, golfing, gardening, painting, reading, stamp collecting, woodworking, modeling, etc.

One hobby practically never listed by a citizen is boosting, but what a good avocation it could be. And it is one that would cost nothing but some complimentary words and defending of one's community against wanton criticism by others.

We were impressed the other day by a newspaper account of a retiring business man of Fort Worth. The article said the man had been a constant booster of Fort Worth "There's only one place better than Fort Worth, but a fellow has to die to go there," was a trite remark accredited to the business man. He made a hobby of boosting his home town.

My, how the Hamlin community could stand a big bunch of community boosters! And it is delightfully interesting to boost your home town, successful business men will tell you. As an avocation is has grown to be more than a hobby to many. It has become a part of them, and they have contributed to it the best that is in them.

Countless other communities have become better places for people to live in because of boosting citizens.

It Can Be Done

Writing in the American magazine, Senator Byrd had this to say about federal spending: "Sometimes you may get the discouraged feeling that forces are now loose in the growth of the federal octopus that are beyond the power of mere man to halt.

"I say they can be halted, and reversed. But I might as well warn that it will be done only if you, the taxpayers, make your sentiments known. Make them known to friends. And make them known to elected officials. You can be more powerful than you realize. Elected officials generally are eager to do what they feel the public wants. The trouble is that the only 'public' they hear from consists of the 'gimme' groups which camp in their ante-rooms."

If we can't balance the budget in a time of booming business and enormous tax collections, when can it be balanced?

A life of pleasure makes even the strongest mind frivolous at last.—Edward B. Lytton.

Elizabeth Norton played a medley of wedding selections and traditional music. She accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Donald Wellman, who sang "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Candles were lighted by ushers Kenneth Cary, brother of the groom, and Buford Griffin of McCaulley. Best man was the bride's brother, Buford Bigham.

SALAD DRESSING

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length original creation of white chintilly lace and taffeta. The lace bodice was fashioned with a taffeta shirred empire midriff, wing collar, a back closing of tiny covered buttons, and tapered, pointed sleeves. The full skirt of taffeta had a center-front gathered panel of lace. From a tiara of pearls a double-tier circular veil of illusion cascaded. She carried gardenias centered in a white bridal bouquet of feathered carnations showered with satin streamers.

Maid-of-honor Patty Bigham, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina length original pastel pink embroidered organdy dress styled similar to the bride's gown. Her headpiece was designed of bands of pink.

The bride's mother wore a pink sheer dress with a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Her accessories were navy. Mrs. Cary wore a beige linen dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride wore a long torso effect navy two-piece linen dress, and the gardenias from her bouquet.

MRS. ROBERT CARY JR. (above) was before her marriage last Monday Joye Lanell Bigham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bigham. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cary Sr.

Some Damage Continues to Be Made by Insects on Cotton Crop of This Section

Some damage continues to be inflicted on cotton in the Hamlin section, although poisoning operations have kept the inroads fairly well under control, according to the weekly cotton condition report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the Texas Extension Service.

The general report for the state follows:

Rains fell in scattered localities in most areas of the state. Some damage occurred to open cotton while some cotton was helped considerably by the additional moisture. Cotton was maturing and opening rapidly over most of the state.

Boll weevil populations continued heavy in succulent cotton in most of the weevil areas of the state and increased in some fields in the West Central, West Cross Timbers and Northwest areas.

Movement of weevils from maturing cotton to fruiting cotton has made control very difficult. Bollworm activity remained heavy in most succulent, fruiting cotton over the state. Controls should be continued in such fields. Pink bollworms increased in some fields of the Central, South Central and East areas. Cotton leafworms were reported for the first time from Howard, Terry, Lubbock and Tom Green Counties.

Many farmers have failed to get adequate cotton insect control this year because of improper applications of insecticides and interval of application. Insecticides must be properly applied to get the most good from them. It is very important that spray nozzles and duster spouts be adjusted and calibrated properly. Spray nozzles should be set six to nine inches, while duster spouts should be set four to six inches above the cotton plant in order to obtain adequate coverage. Interval of insecticide application as recommended in the "Guide" for the insects concerned should be followed closely.

Specific report for the Northwest Texas area, of which Jones and Fisher Counties are a part, follows:

Heavy fleahopper populations continued to damage soome late planted cotton. Medium to heavy bollworm populations were causing damage in some fields, and control measures were needed.

Boll weevils were reported to have increased in Wichita County. Cabbage loopers, webworms, lygus bugs and aphids were reported in some fields of Runnels, King and Cottle Counties.

Family Reunited

was the third brother who was adopted 19 years ago by a Hamlin family, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Johnson.

Joe, a former all-district, defensive halfback at Abilene High School, is the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Carl Moore, 1525 Chestnut Street.

Joe's football running style was a factor in the discovery of his relationship to Tommy, a former high school player at Post.

Seated with a friend in a football stadium one day, Tommy watched Joe scampering down the field. His companion turned to him and said: "Tommy, that guy runs like you do."

This incident, coupled with frequent remarks concerning the similarity in appearance of the two brothers, led to the investigation which disclosed the relationship.

Tommy, a student at Abilene Christian College for two and one-half years, often saw his brother in action on the gridiron.

"It certainly is a coincidence," says Mrs. Moore, "that all the children eventually made their way to Abilene."

Representative of District Urges Pride in American Way

"We cannot separate ourselves from democracy," emphatically declared Moyne L. Kelly of Afton, representative in the State Legislature from the 85th District, when he spoke at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house. This was his first official visit to the Hamlin area since the recent close of the legislative session at Austin.

"It is worth something to be an American," he averred as he went on to declare "We cannot take for granted our freedoms—we must be vigilant and protect them and propagate them. Other isms have come to the forefront in recent years that threaten to supplant the democracy that has meant so much to our way of life and living in America."

Kelly presented a brief review of his first experience in the Legislature, in which he pointed out that he was only one of 150 representatives from all portions of Texas who are trying to do the best for their constituents.

The big appropriations and tax bills for the next biennium were the principal actions of the past legislative session, he pointed out. He spoke proudly of the work the legislators had done in providing for the modernization of the state's eleemosynary institutions, in which more than 25,000 people are being cared for.

Besides Kelly, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon were Foster Cook, new superintendent of schools at Hamlin; G. A. Poe and Chester Sockwell of Hamlin; Joe Breed of Anson; George B. Stoddard of Fort Worth; and Tom Lowery of Denton.

RED CROSS TO RELIEF.

Watermelon Party for County 4-H Club Boys And Girls Set Tonight

Numbers of 4-H Club boys and girls of the Hamlin area will be among the scores who will attend the annual Jones County 4-H Club watermelon party this (Friday) evening at the City Park in Anson.

According to Bill Lehman, county agent, and Jimmie Lou Wainscott, home demonstration agent, the party will start at 6:30 p. m. with a swim at the city pool, followed by the melon slicing at 7:30. All Jones County 4-H Club boys, girls and their families are invited to attend this event.

The agents point out that for the past five years it has rained either just before or during this event. But, rain or shine, it will be held, they announce.

Dove Hunters Ready For Opening of Season

Hunters of the Hamlin area are getting out their guns in preparation for the opening next Thursday of the dove season in the north zone, of which this region is a part.

Doves are fairly plentiful in the section, it is reported. A fair crop of weeds and feeds, and a good supply of tank water in most of the region have helped to propagate the dove crop this year.

Steady Market Prevails for Livestock Despite Buyers' Efforts to Lower Prices

There was the usual effort on the part of the buyers to lower livestock stock prices on the market at Fort Worth Monday, and the usual resistance on the part of the sellers. The result was about a steady market compared with the close last week, according to the weekly market release of Ted Gouley, special market reporter of The Herald. His release continues:

Fat steers and yearlings, stockers and feeders, and canner and cutter cows were most active.

Comparative prices: Slaughter steers and yearlings of good and choice kinds were $19 to $23.50, the top for steers that were fed to mates to the New Mexico cattle at that price last week. Unusual feature was that the two loads sold Monday weighed 941 pounds, exactly the same as those last week. Common and medium beef cattle brought $12 to $18; fat cows, $10.50 to $12; canners and cutters, $7 to $10.50; bulls, $10 to $13.50; good and choice slaughter calves, $16.50 to $18.50; some baby beef yearling weight creep-feds, $19 to $20; common and medium, $12 to $12.50; culls, $9 to $12; stocker steer calves, $16 to $21; yearling stockers, $19 down; stocker cows, $8 to $12.50.

Secretary Glen Tole of the Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association announced this week that Harris Mullin of Dalhart had accepted a bid to judge the steers in the Angus feeder calf show to be held at Fort Worth stockyards September 9. The heifers will be judged by Marvin Couey of San Angelo.

The show and sale will start early, with judging beginning at 6:30 a. m., to be completed in time for selling to start at 8:30 a. m. Inquiry has been heavy from both potential buyers and exhibitors, and with the big feed crop developing all over the Corn Belt, demand for feeders should be broad at that time.

Movement of hogs to market around the major market circle Monday was level with a week earlier, but prices at Fort Worth were 25 to 50 cents higher, and good and choice hogs topped at $17.25 to $17.75. Less desirable weights and grades sold from $16 to $17. Sows at $12 to $15 were steady.

We received a clipping from a farmer friend of ours in Mount Union, Iowa, last week from the Des Moines Register in which that paper's farm editor, J. S. Russell, warned Iowans to market hogs at light weights and early this year.

Fears of a market glut on hogs in the Corn Belt during December and January were related, if farmers failed to heed the warning. Some Iowa sources expect $13 to $15 hog tops this winter. Some other observers are even more pessimistic, predicting $13 to $13 tops, if a careful marketing program is not followed and excessive weights in hogs avoided. Reason is bumper feed crops.

Slaughter ewes were 50 cents higher and sold mostly at $4.50 to $5.50 at Fort Worth Monday. Other kinds of sheep and lambs were steady. Fat lambs topped

ATTRACTIVENESS GONE.

A young couple appeared before a judge on a petition for a divorce. The judge turned to the young wife and said:

"There must have been something about you or else you would never have married him in the first place."

"Yes, sir," replied the young woman, "there was something I liked about him, but he spent it."

at $18, but something strictly choice or prime could probably sell above that easily enough. Feeders sold readily at $14 to $16, and load lots of choice feeders could bring more.

Old wethers drew $7 to $12. Yearling muttons were quoted from $8 to $16. Old bucks were around $4.50.

The West Texas sheep country continues to get rains and some observers there say some sections look like spring. Restocking is already very active, and will increase as the cooler weather approaches.

Stocker cow dealers on the yards report activity in their pens the greatest in a long, long time. Despite the continued relatively low prices on finished cattle, the stocker and feeder demand remains good.

The improved pasture and water conditions in the Southwest have put most sheep and cattle in very strong hands, and efforts of Northern buyers to weaken prices have been unavailing so far this season.

Committee Work Vital in Legislature Kelly Tells Rotary

The 40 committees of the Texas House of Representatives really do much of the work that is accomplished by the legislators at Austin, declared Moyne L. Kelly of Afton, representative from the 85th District, when he spoke at the Wednesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Rotary Club at the oil mill guest house.

Kelly, making his first report of the last legislative session at Austin, reviewed some of the accomplishments of the session. He pointed out that most of the time when it is announced that the Senate and Legislature have adjourned for the balance of a week, then much of the work that is done by the representatives in committee rooms.

"That's where the real hearings of delegations, check-ups on the merits and demerits of a bill are reviewed by the committee handling particular bills," declared the Dickens County man. After a committee studies a proposed bill, it then can give an intelligent recommendation to the legislative body proper, he pointed out.

He further reviewed accomplishments of the Legislature, much of which is contained in a story about his talk at the Lions Club Tuesday.

Besides Kelly, other guests at the Rotary luncheon included Bill Blakney of Abilene; M. T. York Jr. of Dallas; W. M. Blackburn of Stamford; Chester Sockwell, Rev. Darris L. Egger and Foster Cook, new superintendent of the Hamlin schools.

10 to 12 Draftees from Three-County Area to Be Taken in August

Probably 10 to 12 draftees from the three-county area administered by the Ansart draft board will be called from Jones, Haskell and Shackelford Counties in the August call.

A Texas draft induction call for 550 men for August was announced by Lieutenant Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, deputy director of state selective service at Austin.

The call, Texas' share of a national call for 10,000 men, is identical with the quota for July. Quotas have maintained an almost constant level for several months.

There will be no physical-mental examinations of men for military service through the draft boards in August except in isolated cases, Colonel Schwartz said.

With the exception of volunteers, the August induction call will be filled only with men who on August 1 are at least 21 years of age, said the deputy state selective service director.

Around-the-Clock Vigil Slated in Sale By Kincaid Firm

Kincaid Gas & Appliance is joining with hundreds of Maytag dealers throughout Texas in an ambitious sales program tagged "Operation 40"—a part of the big Maytag marathon. For 40 exciting hours the sales staff of Kincaid's will be on hand day and night starting Friday morning, August 26, at 8:00 a. m. and continuing through Saturday midnight. The idea for a retail marathon materialized after the highly successful "Operation 40," during which Maytag representatives throughout America called on dealers for a continuous 72-hour period. An all-time record was made during this campaign.

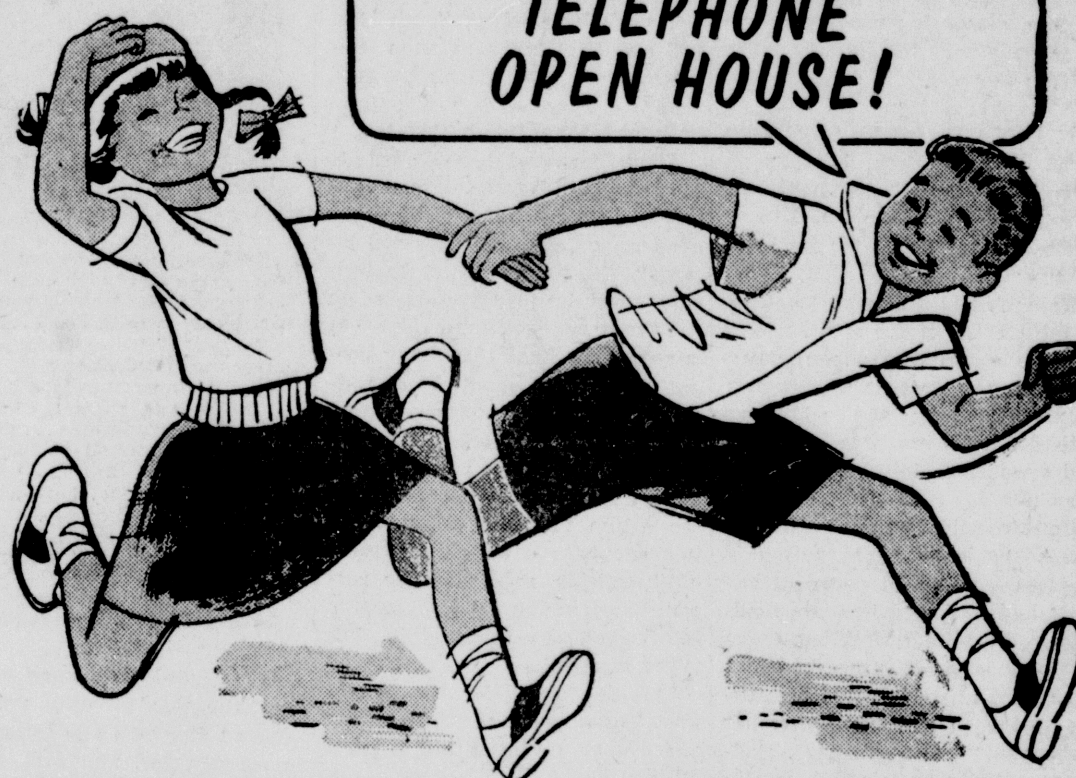

During "Operation 40," sales personnel will don night caps and serve coffee to prospective customers at all hours. If a salesman is caught "asleep on the job," G. W. Kincaid claims he will give the finder a brand new Maytag washing machine. One of the many slogans to come out of the current marathon campaigns is the now famous "We're sleepy—take advantage of us!" Another popular Maytag slogan from the campaigns: "Marathon trade-ins make prices just a drop in the budget!"

Maytag dealers of Texas, in preparation for this event, ordered 6,400 Maytag appliances, an unequalled number for a single sales event. The Maytag factory at Newton, Iowa, is sending the entire shipment by super van convoy—64 giant trailer trucks—the largest truck shipment ever made, according to the 25 participating transit lines. The shipment has attracted national attention and has been publicized on television and in newspapers.

Walter Rogers, president of Maytag Southwestern, after visiting several Texas cities where test campaigns were being held, announced that he felt the principal reason for the success of the marathon was its informality, plus the opportunity for home-makers to shop "day or night."

Special Open House at Telephone Office Demonstrating Intricate Operations

The special open house at the Hamlin telephone building ends tonight. George Beard, manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has extended a special invitation to all Hamlin residents.

"We're proud of our telephone system here and want to take this opportunity to show it to the people of Hamlin," Beard said. "We think the tour is a 'natural' for children, because of its entertainment and the educational value."

Hours for the open house are from 6:30 to 9:30 p. m. Guides will be on hand to explain the operation of the telephone equipment. Visitors will tour the entire building, see operators at work placing local and long distance calls, and see the intricate telephone equipment as well as several special exhibits.

Special exhibits include the company's tick-tack-toe machine. "You can't beat the tick-tack-toe machine," claims Beard, who arranged to have the exhibits brought here.

The machine actually competes with human beings in the familiar game sometimes called "cat and mouse." The machine was designed to demonstrate modern telephone equipment works. It is made of actual telephone relays or switches.

"It's amazing how intelligently this machine plays the game. Just like a man, only better. You push a button which lights up an X in one of the squares. The machine automatically lights up an O in another square," Beard explained.

"Then no matter where you place your next X, the machine will outguess you and either force you into a tie or perhaps beat you."

Local telephone people will serve as guides, hostesses and narrators.

"Hamlin telephone people have looked forward for this opportunity to show their friends and neighbors through our telephone building. We believe we have something here that is of interest of everyone in Hamlin and the vicinity," Beard added.

Big Prizes Posted For Boys and Girls At Texas State Fair

An estimated $185,000 in cash premiums and auction sales proceeds will be waiting for the 1,250 Texas farm boys and girls expected to take part in junior livestock and poultry shows and sales at the 1955 State Fair of Texas.

A total of $17,107 in premiums have been posted for the junior shows—$15,467 for dairy cattle, fat and market steers, lambs and pigs, and $1,640 for turkeys and chickens.

Ray W. Wilson, the fair's livestock manager, predicted that total receipts from the 1955 junior auction sales will exceed substantially the $166,055 that 1954 sales brought in for the youngsters who participated.

The Junior Livestock Show will be held October 17 to 22, during the second week of the fair. Judging dates and premiums are as follows: October 19—Dairy cattle $3,370, fat steers $2,867, and lambs $1,565; October 20—Pigs $3,100, and market steers $3,200; October 21—Negro pig show $1,015. There will be special junior herdsman awards totaling $350.

Judging dates and premiums for junior poultry events: October 8—Market turkeys $800; October 10—Egg production flocks $340; October 15—Market broilers $500.

Famous last words: "My boy friend wants me to get married—but not to him."

Parents of School Children Urged to Give Health Check

Parents of Hamlin area children are reminded that the start of school is only a short time away, and a physical examination may be needed.

If your child is in good health, reminds Dr. Henry A. Holle, commissioner of health for Texas, he will have a happier, more profitable year. It's up to you to give him a healthful start-off.

After he has his check-up by the family doctor, be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important, and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble. They may start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to grow up with good teeth... see that he has a dental examination twice a year.

Sometimes children need glasses and their parents do not realize it. An examination by an eye specialist is important. A child who needs glasses, if taken to an eye physician now, will have time to get used to them before school starts.

When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox? Does he know he should use only his own drinking glass? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he shows signs of a cold?

Plenty of exercise and recreation, the right kinds of foods daily, and 12 hours of sleep at night, are necessary for a child of elementary school age.

Get your child an appointment for a check-up today... the first day of school is not far away.

More Men Continue To Be Released Than Enter Service

More men of the Hamlin area continue to be released from the armed services than are entering, following a pattern for the state.

A total of nearly 23,000 Texans entered the armed forces by enlistment and draft during the first half of 1955, with more than 34,000 residents of the Lone Star State being separated during the same period.

This was reflected in a statement issued by state selective service headquarters based on monthly reports to national selective service headquarters.

Of the nearly 23,000 Texans entering the uniformed services, the big majority went in by enlistment. Nearly 19,000 were reported by the armed services as enlisting. Lieutenant Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, deputy state draft director, said.

The state's draft boards ordered nearly 4,000 men into the Army each $1.25 paid to you as a GI training allowance.

Q—I am receiving disability compensation payments and, according to a statement by my physician, my condition has become worse. Would that statement alone qualify me for increased payments?

A.—The evidence provided by your physician must be verified by an official VA physical examination. If VA finds that your condition has become worse, the compensation increase may be made effective as of the date VA received the evidence from your physician.

VETERAN QUESTIONS

The questions and answers below about veteran problems are carried as a service to present and former service connected personnel by The Herald. Material for this column is supplied by the area office of the Veterans Administration at Lubbock.

Question—I have made arrangements for my GI insurance payments to be paid to my beneficiary in a lump sum. In case she doesn't want a lump sum, does she have the right to change the method of payment?

Answer—Yes. Under your lump sum designation, your beneficiary may elect to receive GI insurance payments under any of the installment plans available.

Q—I am taking a correspondence course under the Korean GI bill. What does VA consider as the official beginning and ending dates of my course?

A.—The beginning date is the date the school supplies you with your first lesson. The ending date is the date the school services your final lesson.

Q—I am planning to take flight training under the Korean GI bill. At what rate will I use up my GI training entitlement?

A.—Your entitlement will be used up at the rate of one day for

Mrs. Freeman Takes Position at Woodson

Mrs. O. C. Freeman, who has been teaching English in Hamlin High School for the past five years, recently has accepted a teaching position at Woodson High School.

The Woodson school will start September 5, and she will teach in the English department.

during the first six months of the year, Colonel Schwartz said, and he added that many of these volunteered for induction, as authorized by selective service regulations.

Men going into service through the draft boards go into the Army. The figures for enlistment and separation include those of all the armed forces departments.

STORY REVISED.

A husband said to his wife "Have you heard the story about the dirty window?"

"No," she replied.

"Well," he said, "you couldn't see through it, anyway."

His wife asked a friend later, "Have you heard the story about the window you couldn't see through?"

"No," said her friend. "Oh, well," said the wife, "it's too dirty to tell, anyway."

Producers Gin Puts in Electric Power Plant

Complete electrification of the Producers Gin at Hamlin is being wound up this week, according to J. F. (Jim) Bishop, new manager of the concern. The plant is expected to be ready for operation some time this week-end, it is announced.

In the modernization program of the gin, besides the electrification of the power plant for the gin, new cleaners and dryers also have been added, and the gin stands have been completely overhauled, Bishop declares.

Curbs on Foreign Oil Imports Urged Unless Voluntarily Controlled

Hamlin area oil operators and producers, as well as land owners and royalty holders, were interested this week in moves to control oil imports that have cut production in the states.

Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson urged in Washington that curbs be placed on oil imports unless companies bringing in foreign crude and residual oils voluntarily take such action.

In a letter to Arthur S. Flemming, head of the Office of Defense Mobilization, Burleson expressed certainty that data asked by the ODM of the companies would indicate restraining action is justified.

Prompted by requests of lawmakers, with Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas taking the lead, Flemming has called on importing oil companies to submit statements as to how much oil they plan to bring into this country in future months.

Two-County Singing Slated at Stamford

Singers and song lovers of the Hamlin section are advised that the Haskell and Jones County singing will be conducted Sunday afternoon at the Foursquare Gospel Church in Stamford.

A feature of the singing, which begins at 2:00 o'clock, will be the appearance of the Harris colored quartet, arrangements committee announces. The public is invited to attend.

Good Judgment Shown in Heeding Road Signs of Life

"It's a sign of good judgment to know and obey the signs of life!"

E. C. McFadden of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association, Inc., made that remark this week in discussing the current signs-of-life program the Texas Safety Association and the Department of Public Safety are sponsoring in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

"Signs-of-life are the traffic signs and signals erected for the protection of motorists and pedestrians," McFadden explained. "It's their job to warn of conditions ahead, and drivers who don't heed their warning are likely to run into trouble."

"The traffic trouble caused by such heedlessness is indicated," McFadden said, "by the fact that more than half the drivers involved in fatal traffic accidents are violating one or more traffic laws at the time of the accident."

Violations most frequently committed are:

1. Exceeding speed limit.
2. Failure to keep right of center line.
3. Improper passing.
4. Disregarding warning sign.
5. Disregarding stop sign.
6. Disregarding signal or officer.

"On the matter of speed," McFadden said, "driving too fast for conditions often causes drivers to miss traffic signs or signals or to be unable to slow down in time if they do see them."

"Whenever you drive," he said, "remember that it's dangerous to be a hurry bug. Slow down and live!"

Good Crowd Attending Calvary Church Meet

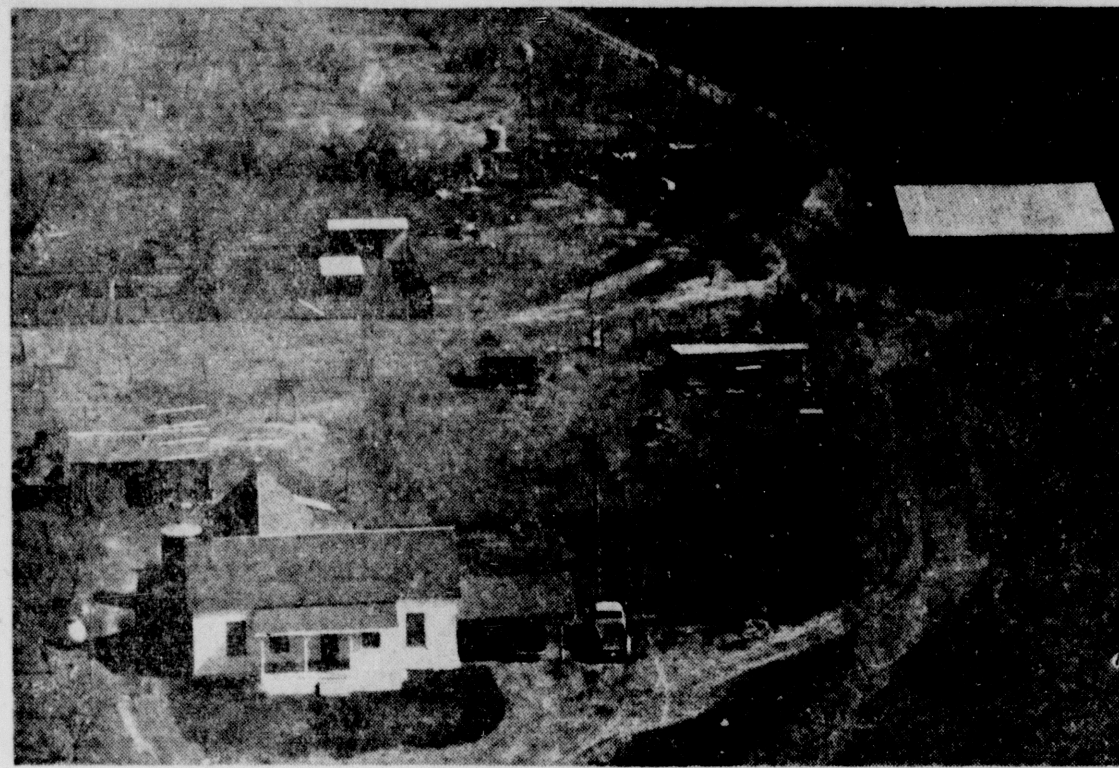

Good crowds and increasing interest have been manifested at the revival services at the Calvary Baptist Church this week, reports Rev. W. C. Rea, pastor. The meeting will continue through Sunday evening's services, and the public is invited.

Doing the preaching in the series of services is Rev. W. A. Corley of Jacksonville.

FIRST TO IDENTIFY last week's Mystery Farm Picture printed in The Herald was Nina Jean, young lady living on Route 2 out of Hamlin. The picture was of the Holly Toler place, one and one-half miles east of Hamlin, which is devoted to the growing of wheat and stock raising. The Tolers purchased the place five years ago from the Barnett estate. Holly Toler Jr. utilizes the place for both his FFA projects and for commercial feeding of cattle. Modern soil and water conservation practices are utilized on the farm.

Nina Jean First to Correctly Identify Mystery Farm Picture Used Last Week

Mystery farm picture printed in last week's edition of The Herald was first correctly identified by Nina Jean, who lives on Route 2 out of Hamlin as the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Holly Toler, one and one-half miles east of Hamlin.

The home on the place is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly, who are working the place.

The Tolers purchased the farm five years ago from the Barnett estate, which had held the place for many years.

Most of the farm's acreage is devoted to the growing of wheat, and livestock is pastured on the grasslands.

Holly Toler Jr., who has been active in Future Farmers of America work at Hamlin High School, has used the farm for promotion of his projects in connection with his FFA work. He has some commercial cattle on the place now as a project outside of his classwork.

Modern farming methods have been practiced on the Toler land, which also has promoted approved soil and water conservation practices sponsored by the California Creek Soil Conservation District. Soil improvement crops have been planted on the farm for several years to good advantage.
